BUY NOW

- First of its kind why-to book on how anyone can invest in the change they want to see in the world, emphasizing charity alone cannot solve the world's problems
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) now allows anyone to invest for as little as $50 through equity crowdfunding - very few people know about this.
- Future potential investors are not getting the info they need and will not invest the same way angels do today.
- After reading this book you will have a path to more effectively drive the change you want to see in the world that can bring you both financial and emotional rewards.
